DRUGS AND MAGIC REMEDIES (OBJECTIONABLE ADVERTISEMENTS)
ACT, 1954

21 of 1954

[]

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS "In recent years there has been a great increase in the number of objectionable advertisements published in newspapers or magazines or otherwise relating to alleged cures for venereal diseases, sexual stimulants and alleged cures for diseases and conditions peculiar to women. These advertisements tend to cause the ignorant and the unwary to resort to self-medication with harmful drugs and appliances, or to resort to quacks who indulge in such advertisements for treatments which cause great harm. It is necessary in the public interest to put a stop to such undesirable advertisements. This Bill is intended for this purpose. 2, It is considered that the necessary legislation should be enacted by the Centre in order to deal with this menace on uniform lines. Such legislation is relatable to the Entry "Drugs and Poisons" in the Concurrent List in the Constitution of India in so far as undesirable advertisements relating to drugs are concerned and to the Entry "Legal, Medical and other Professions" in the same List in regard to similar advertisements of magic remedies by persons who practise the profession of administering such remedies. The Bill when enacted will supersede State laws where they exist to the extent to which they are repugnant to the Central law" - Gazette of India, 1953, Extra., Pt. II, Section 2, p.1057. OBJECTS AND REASONS "..... The constitutionality of this Act was challenged before the Supreme Court on the ground that the Act as a whole infringed the fundamental right of freedom of speech and expression under Art. 19(1)(a) of the Constitution and the fundamental right to carry on trade and business under Art. 19(1)(f) and (g). The Supreme Court while upholding the provisions of the Act in general struck down a part of cl. (d) of section 3 and the whole of S. 8 as invalid on the ground that the power to specify diseases by rule and the power of seizure conferred by the section are too wide. It has, therefore, become necessary to amend that Act so as to eliminate the defects pointed out by the Court." - S.O.R., Gazette of India, 10-5-1964, Pt. II, Section 2, Extra, p. 474.
