1. Coll. States. Ind., Vol. I.

2. Inserted by Act 35 of 1934, Section 2 and Schedule

3. Substituted by Act 14 of 1932, Section 130 and Schedule, for "or the Air Force Act" which had been Inserted by Act 10 of 1927, Section 2 and Schedule I

5. Inserted by Act 10 of 1927, Section 2 and Schedule I.

6. Inserted by Act 5 of 1926, s 4.

13. Power and duties of police in respect of wandering or dangerous lunatics and lunatics cruelly treated or not under proper care and control. :-

(1) Every officer in charge of a police-station may arrest or cause to be arrested all persons found wandering at large within the limits of his station whom he has reason to believe to be lunatics, and shall arrest or cause to be arrested all persons within the limits of his station whom he has reason to believe to be dangerous by reason of lunacy. Any person so arrested shall be taken forthwith before the Magistrate.

(2) Every officer in charge of a police-station who has reason to believe that any person within the limits of his station is deemed to be a lunatic and is not under proper care and, control, or is cruelly treated or neglected by any relative or other person having the charge of him, shall immediately report the, fact to the Magistrate.

14. Reception order in case of wandering and dangerous lunatics. :-

Whenever any person is brought before a Magistrate under the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 13 , the Magistrate shall examine such person, and if he thinks that there are grounds for proceeding further, shall cause him to be examined by a medical officer, and may make such other inquiries as he thinks fit; and if the Magistrate is satisfied that such person is a lunatic and a proper person to be obtained, he may, if the medical officer who has examined such person gives a medical certificate with regard to such person, make a reception order for the admission of such lunatic into an asylum :

Provided that, if any friend or relative desires that the lunatic be sent to a licensed asylum and engages in writing to the satisfaction of the Magistrate to pay the cost of maintenance of the lunatic in such asylum, the Magistrate shall, if the person in charge of such asylum consents, make a reception order for the admission of the lunatic into the licensed asylum mentioned in the engagement:

Provided further that if any friend or relative of the lunatic enters into a bond with or without sureties for such sum of money as the magistrate thinks fit, conditioned that such lunatic shall be properly taken care of, and shall be prevented from doing injury to himself or to others, the Magistrate, instead of making a reception order may if he thinks fit, make him over to the care of such friend or relative.

15. Order in case of lunatic cruelly treated or not under proper care and control. :-

(1) If it appears to the Magistrate, on the report of a police-officer or the information of any other person, that any person within the limits of his jurisdiction deemed to be a lunatic is not under proper care and control or is cruelly treated or neglected by any relative or other person having the charge of him, the Magistrate may cause the alleged lunatic to be produced before him, and summon such relative or other person as has or ought to have the charge of him.

(2) If such relative or other person is legally bound to maintain the alleged lunatic, the Magistrate may make an order for such alleged lunatic being properly cared for and treated, and, if such relative or other person willfully neglects to comply with the said order, the Magistrate may sentence him to imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month.

(3) If there is no person legally bound to maintain the alleged lunatic, or if the Magistrate thinks fit so to do, he may proceed as prescribed in section 14 , and upon being satisfied in manner aforesaid that the person deemed to be a lunatic is a lunatic and a proper person to be detained under care and treatment may, if a medical officer gives a medical certificate with regard to such lunatic, make a reception order for the admission of such lunatic into an asylum.

16. Detention of alleged lunatic pending report by medical officer. :-

(1) When any person alleged to be a lunatic is brought before a Magistrate under the provisions of section 13 or section 15 , the Magistrate may, by an order in writing, authorise the detention of the alleged lunatic in suitable custody- for such time not exceeding ten days as may be, in his opinion, necessary to enable the medical officer to determine whether such alleged lunatic is a person in respect of whom a medical certificate may be properly given,

(2) The Magistrate may, from time to time, for the same purpose by order in writing, authorise such further detention of the alleged lunatic for periods not exceeding ten days at a time as he thinks necessary:

Provided that no person shall be detained in accordance with the provisions of this section for a total period exceeding thirty day from the date on which he was first brought before the Magistrate.

17. Commissioner of Police, etc., to act in the Presidency-

town. :-

All acts which the Magistrate is authorised or required to do by section 14, Section 15 or section 16 may be done in the Presidency-towns<sup>1</sup> * * * by the Commissioner of Police"; and all duties which an officer in charge of a police-station is authorised or required to perform may be performed in any of the Presidency-towns by an officer of the police force not below the rank of an inspector. (1) Every medical certificate under this Act shall be made and signed by a medical practitioner or a medical officer, as the case may be. and shall be in the form prescribed.

(2) Every medical certificate shall state the facts upon which the person certifying has formed his opinion that the alleged lunatic is a lunatic, distinguishing facts observed by himself from facts communicated by others ; and no reception order on petition shall be made upon a certificate founded only upon facts communicated by others.

(3) Every medical certificate made under this Act shall be evidence of the facts therein appearing and of the judgment therein stated to have been formed by the person certifying on such facts, as if the matters therein appearing had been verified on oath.

19. Time and manner of medical examination of lunatic. :-

(1) A reception order required to be founded on a medical certificate shall not be made unless the person who signs the medical certificate, or, where two certificates are' required, each person who signs a certificate has personally examined the alleged lunatic, in the case of an order upon petition, not more than seven clear days before the date of the presentation of the petition, and, in all other cases not more than seven clear days before the date of the order.

(2) Where two medical certificates are required, a reception order shall not be made unless each person signing a certificate has examined the alleged lunatic separately from the other.

20. Authority for reception. :-

A reception order, if the same appears to be in conformity with this Act, shall be sufficient authority for the petitioner or any person authorised by him, or in the case of an order not made upon petition, for the person authorised so to do by the person making the order, to take the lunatic and convey him to the place mentioned in such order and for his reception and detention therein, or in any asylum to which he may be removed in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and the order may be acted on without further evidence of the signature or of the jurisdiction of the person making the order : <sup>1</sup> [Provided that no reception order shall continue to have effect-

(a) after the expiry of thirty days from the date on which it was made, unless the lunatic has been admitted to the place mentioned therein within that period, or

(b) after the discharge, under the provisions of this Act of the lunatic from such place or from any asylum to which he may have been removed]

1. Inserted by Act 32 of 1923, s 2.

21. Copy of reception order to be sent to person in charge of asylum. :-

Any authority making a reception order under this Part shall forthwith send a certified copy of the order to the person in charge of the asylum into which such lunatic is to be admitted.

22. Restriction as to asylums into which reception orders may direct admission. :-

Subject to the provisions of section 85 no Magistrate shall to make a reception order for the admission of any lunatic into <sup>1</sup> [any Government asylum] outside the State in which the Magistrate exercises Jurisdiction.

1. Subs by the A 0 1937, for "any asylum established by Govt."

23. Detention of lunatics pending removal to asylum. :-

When any reception order has been made under section 7, 10, 14 or 15, the Magistrate may, for reason to be recorded in writing direct that the lunatic, pending his removal to an asylum, be detained in suitable custody in such place as the Magistrate thinks fit.

24. Reception and detention of criminal lunatics. :-

An order under section 466 or S.471 of Code of Criminal Procedure,

Provided that in the case of a lunatic not being a criminal lunatic or a lunatic in respect of whom a reception order has been made under section 12 , the power to re-take such escaped lunatic under this section shall be exercisable only for a period of one month from the date of his escape.

PART 3

JUDICIAL INQUISITION AS TO LUNACY

CHAPTER 4

PROCEEDINGS IN LUNACY IN PRESIDENCY-TOWNS

37. Jurisdiction in lunacy in Presidency towns. :-

The Courts having jurisdiction under this Chapter shall be the High Courts of Judicature at Fort William, Madras and Bombay.

38. Court may order inquisition as to persons alleged to be insane. :-

Court may order inquisition as to person alleged to be insane.

(1) The Court may upon application by order direct an inquisition whether a person subject to the jurisdiction of the Court who is alleged to be lunatic, is of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself and his affairs.

(2) Such order may also contain directions for inquiries concerning the nature of the property belonging to the alleged lunatic, the persons who are his relatives, the time during which he has been of unsound mind, or such other matters as to the Court may seem proper.

39. Application by whom to be made. :-

Application for such inquisition may be made by any relative of the alleged lunatic, or by the Advocate-General.

40. Notice of time and place of inquisition. :-

(1) Notice shall be given to the alleged lunatic of the time and place at which it is proposed to hold the inquisition.

(2) If it appears that personal service on the alleged lunatic would be ineffectual, the Court may direct such substituted service of the notice as it thinks fit.

(3) The Court may also direct a copy of such notice to be served upon any relative of the alleged lunatic and upon any other person to whom in the opinion of the Court notice of the application should be given.

41. Powers of court in respect of attendance and examination of lunatic. :-

(1) The Court may require the alleged lunatic to attend at such convenient time and place as it may appoint for the purpose of being personally examined by the Court, or by any person from whom the Court may desire to have a report of the mental capacity and condition of such alleged lunatic.

(2) The Court may likewise make an order authorising any person or persons therein named to have access to the alleged lunatic for the purpose of a personal examination.

42. Rules respecting attendance and examination of females alleged to be lunatic. :-

The attendance and examination of the alleged lunatic under the provisions of section 41 shall, if the alleged lunatic be a woman who, according to the manners and customs of the country, ought not, to be compelled to appear in public, be regulated by the law and practice for the examination of such persons in other civil cases.

43. Power to direct District. :-

(1) If the alleged lunatic is not within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, and the inquisition cannot conveniently be made in the manner hereinbefore provided, the Court may direct the inquisition to be made before the District Court within whose local jurisdiction the alleged lunatic may be ; and such District Court shall accordingly proceed to make such inquisition in the same manner as if the alleged lunatic were subject to its jurisdiction, and shall certify its finding upon the matters of inquisition to the Court directing the inquisition.

(2) The record of evidence taken upon the inquisition shall be transmitted, together with any remarks the 'Court may think fit to make thereon, to the Court by which the inquisition was directed.

44. Amendment of finding of District Court if defective or insufficient in form. :-

If the finding of the District Court appears to the Court directing the inquisition to be defective or insufficient in point of form it may either amend the same or refer it back to the Court which made the inquisition to be amended.

45. Proceedings on finding of Court. :-

The finding of the Court on the inquisition or the finding of the District Court to which the inquisition may have been referred under the provisions of section 43 with such amendments as may be made under the provisions of section 44 , as the case may be, shall have the same effect, and be proceeded on in the same manner in regard to the appointment of a guardian of the person and a manager of the estate of the lunatic as the findings referred to in section 12 of the <sup>1</sup> Lunacy (Supreme Courts) Act, 1858 immediately before the commencement of this Act.

1. Substituted by Act 3 of 1951, Section 3 and Schedule, for " the States " (w.e.f. 1-4-1951).

46. Custody of lunatics and management of their. :-

(1) The Court may make orders for the custody of lunatics so found by inquisition and the management of their estates.

(2) When upon the inquisition it is specially found that the person to whom the inquisition relates is of unsound mind so as to be incapable of managing his affairs, but that he is capable of managing himself, and is not dangerous to himself or to others, the Court may make such orders as it thinks fit for the management of the estate of the lunatic including proper provision for the maintenance of the lunatic and of such members of his family as are dependent on him for maintenance, but it shall not be necessary to make any order as to the custody of the person of the lunatic.

47. Power of manager in respect of management of lunatics estate :-

The Court, on the appointment of a manager of the estate of a lunatic, may direct by the order of appointment, or by any subsequent order, that such manager shall have such powers for the management of the estate as to the Court may seem necessary and proper, reference being had to the nature of the property, whether moveable or immovable, of which the estate may consist: Provided that no manager so appointed shall without the permission of the Court-

(a) mortgage, charge or transfer by sale, gift, exchange or otherwise, any immovable property of the lunatic; or

(b) lease any such property for a term exceeding five years. Such permission may be granted subject to any condition or restriction which the Court thinks fit to impose

48. Power to make order concerning any matter connected with the lunacy. :-

The Court may, on application made to it by petition concerning any matter whatsoever connected with the lunatic or his estate, make such order, subject to the provisions of this Chapter, respecting the application, as in the circumstances it thinks fit. Management and administration

49. Power to dispose of lunatics property for certain purposes. :-

The Court may, if it appears to be just or for the lunatic's benefit, order that any property, moveable or immoveable, of the lunatic, and whether in possession, reversion, remainder, or contingency, be sold, charged, mortgaged, dealt with or otherwise disposed of as may seem most expedient for the purpose of raising or securing or repaying with or without interest money to be applied or which has been applied to all or any of the following purposes, namely-

- (1) the payment of the lunatic's debts or engagements :
- (2) the discharge of any incumbrance on his property ;
- (3) the payment of any debt or expenditure incurred for the lunatic's maintenance or otherwise for his benefit;
- (4) the payment of or provision for the expenses of his future maintenance and the maintenance of such members of his family as are dependent on him for maintenance, including the expenses of his removal to Europe, if he shall be so removed, and all expenses incidental thereto;
- (5) the payment of the costs of any inquiry under this Chapter. and of any costs incurred :- by order or under the authority of the Court.

50. Execution of conveyances and powers by manager under order of Court :-

- (1) The manager of the lunatic's estate shall, in the name and on behalf of the lunatic, execute all such conveyances and instruments of transfer relative to any sale, mortgage or other disposition of his estate as the Court may order.

(2) Such manager shall, in like manner, under the order of the Court, exercise all powers whatsoever vested in a lunatic whether the same are vested in him for his own benefit or in the character of trustee or guardian

51. Court may order performance of contract. :-

Where a person, having contracted to sell or otherwise dispose of his estate or any part thereof, afterwards becomes lunatic the Court may, if the contract is such as the Court thinks ought to be performed, direct the manager of the estate to execute such conveyances and to do such other acts in fulfilment of the contract as it shall think proper.

52. Dissolution and disposal of property of partnership on a member becoming lunatic. :-

(1) Where a person, being a member of a partnership firm is found to be a lunatic, the Court may, on the application of the other partners, or of any person who appears to the Court to be entitled to require the same, dissolve the partnership.

(2) Upon such dissolution, or upon a dissolution by decree of Court or otherwise by due course of law, the manager of the estate may, in the name and on behalf of the lunatic, join with the other partners in disposing of the partnership property upon such terms. and shall do all such acts for carrying into effect the dissolution of the partnership, as the Court shall think proper.

53. Disposal of business premises. :-

Where a lunatic has been engaged in business the Court may, if it appears to be for the lunatic's benefit that the business premises should be disposed of, order the manager of the estate to sell and dispose of the same, and the moneys arising from such sale shall be applied in such manner as the Court may direct.

54. Manager may dispose of lease. :-

Where a lunatic is entitled to a lease or under-lease, and it appears to be for the benefit of his estate that it should be disposed of, the manager of the estate may by order of the Court, surrender, assign or otherwise dispose of the same to such person for such valuable or nominal consideration, and upon such terms, as the Court thinks fit.

55. Assumption of charge by Court of land belonging to a lunatic in certain cases. :-

If a lunatic is possessed of any immoveable property situate beyond the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court which, by the law in force in the State wherein such property is situated, subjects the proprietor, if disqualified, to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards, the said Court of Wards may assume the charge of such property and manage the same according to the law for the time being in force for such management:

Provided that-

(1) In such case no further proceedings in respect of the lunacy shall be taken under any such law, nor shall it be competent to the Court of Wards or to any Collector to appoint a guardian of the person of the said lunatic or a manager of the estate except of the immoveable property which so subjects the proprietor as aforesaid:

(2) the surplus of the income of such property after providing for the payment of the Government revenue and expenses of management, shall be disposed of from time to time in such manner as the High Court may direct :

(3) nothing contained in this section shall affect the powers given to the High Court by section 49 , Section 50 and Section 51 or (except so far as relates to the management of the said immoveable property which so subject the proprietor as

56. Power to apply property for lunatics maintenance without appointing manager in certain cases. :-

(1) If it appears to the Court having regard to the situation and condition in life of the lunatic and his family and the other circumstances of the case to be expedient that his property should be made available for his or their maintenance in a direct and inexpensive manner it may; instead of appointing a manager of the estate, order that the property if money or if of any other description the produce thereof, when realized, be paid to such person as the Court may think fit, to be applied for the purpose aforesaid.

(2) The receipt of the person so appointed shall be a valid discharge to any person who pays any money or delivers any property of the lunatic to such person.

57. Power to order transfer of stoke belonging to lunatic in certain cases. :-

Where any stock or Government securities or any share in a company (transferable within <sup>1</sup> [India] or the dividends of which are payable there) is or are standing in the name of, or vested in, a lunatic, beneficially entitled thereto, or in a manager of the estate of a lunatic, or in a trustee for him, and the manager dies intestate, or himself becomes lunatic, or is out of the jurisdiction of the Court, or it is uncertain whether the manager is living or dead, or he neglects or refuses to transfer the stock securities or shares, or to receive and pay over thereof the dividends to a new manager or as the Court directs, within fourteen days after being required by the Court to do so then the Court may order some fit person to make such transfer, or to transfer the same and to receive and pay over the dividends in such manner as the Court directs.

1. Substituted by Act 3 of 1951, Section 3 and Schedule, for " the States " (w.e.f. 1-4-1951).

58. Power to order transfer of stock of lunatic residing out of India and the United Kingdom. :-

Where any such stock or Government securities or share in a company is or are standing in the name of or vested in any person residing out of <sup>1</sup> [India] and not in any part of the United Kingdom, the Court upon being satisfied that such person has been declared lunatic, and that his personal estate has been vested in a person appointed for the management thereof according to the law of the place where he is residing may order some fit person to make such transfer of the stock, securities or shares or of any part thereof to or into the name of the person so appointed or otherwise, and also to receive and pay over the dividends and proceeds as the Court thinks fit.

1. Substituted by Act 3 of 1951, Section 3 and Schedule, for " the States " (w.e.f. 1-4-1951).

59. Power to apply property for lunatics maintenance in case of temporary lunacy. :-

If it appears to the Court that the unsoundness of mind of a lunatic is in its nature temporary, and that it is expedient to make temporary provision for his maintenance or for the maintenance of such members of his family as are dependent on him for their maintenance the Court may in like manner as under section 56 , direct his property or a sufficient part of it to be applied for the purpose aforesaid.

60. Proceedings in lunacy to cease or to be set aside if

Court finds that the unsoundness of mind has ceased. :-

(1) When any person has been found under this Chapter to be of unsound mind, and it is subsequently shown to the Court that there is reason to believe that such unsoundness of mind has ceased, the Court may make an order for inquiring whether such person is still of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself and his affairs.

(2) The inquiry shall be conducted as far as may be in the manner prescribed in this Chapter for an inquisition into the unsoundness of mind of an alleged lunatic ; and if it is found that the unsoundness of mind has ceased, the Court shall order all proceedings in the lunacy to cease or to be set aside on such terms and conditions as to the Court may seem fit.

61. Power of Court rules. :-

The Court may, from time to time, make rules for the purpose of carrying onto effect the provisions of this Chapter in matters of lunacy.

CHAPTER 5

PROCEEDINGS IN LUNACY OUTSIDE PRESIDENCY-TOWNS

62. Power of District Court to institute inquisition as to persons alleged to be lunatic. :-

Whenever any person not subject to the jurisdiction of any of the Courts mentioned in section 37 is possessed of property and is alleged to be a lunatic the District Court, within whose jurisdiction such person is residing may, upon application, by order direct an inquisition for the purpose of ascertaining whether such person is of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself and his affairs.
Lunacy

63. Application by whom to be made. :-

(1) Application for such inquisition may be made by any relative of the alleged lunatic or by any public Curator appointed under the Succession (Property Protection) Act, 1841<sup>1</sup> (hereinafter referred to as the Curator) or by the Government Pleader, as defined in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, or if the property of the alleged lunatic consists in whole or in part of land or any interest in land, by the Collector of the district in which it is situate.

(2) If the property or any part thereof is of such a description that it would by the law in force in any State where such property is situate subject the proprietor, if disqualified, to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards, the application may be made by the Collector on behalf of the Court of Wards.

1. Inserted by Act 6 of 1922, Section 3

64. Regulation of proceedings of District Courts. :-

The provisions of section 40 , Section 41 and Section 42 shall regulate the proceedings of the District Court with regard to the matters to which they relate.

65. Inquisition by District Court and finding thereon. :-

(1) The District Court, if it thinks fit, may appoint two or more persons to act as assessors to the Court in the said inquisition.

(2) Upon the completion of the inquisition, the Court shall determine whether the alleged lunatic is of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself and his affairs or may come to a special finding that such alleged lunatic is of unsound mind so as to be incapable of managing his affairs, but that he is capable of managing himself and is not dangerous to himself or to others.

66. Inquisition by subordinate Court on commission issued by District Court and proceedings thereon. :-

(1) If the alleged lunatic resides at a distance of more than fifty miles from the place where the District Court is held to which the application is made, the said Court may issue a Commission to any subordinate Court to make the inquisition, and such subordinate Court shall thereupon conduct the inquisition in the manner hereinbefore provided in this Chapter.

(2) On the completion of the inquisition the subordinate Court shall transmit the record of its proceedings with the opinions of the assessors if assessors have been appointed, and its own opinion on the case; and the District Court shall thereupon proceed to dispose of the application in the manner provided in section 65 , sub-section (2):

Provided that the District Court may direct the subordinate Court to make such further or other inquiries as it thinks fit before disposing of the application.

67. Custody of lunatics and management of their estates. :-

(1) The Court may make orders for the custody of lunatics so found by inquisition and the management of their estates.

(2) When upon the inquisition it is specially found that the person to whom the inquisition relates is of unsound mind so as to be incapable of managing his affairs, but that he is capable of managing himself and is not dangerous to himself or to others, the Court may make such orders as it thinks fit for the management of the estate of the lunatic including proper provisions for the maintenance of the lunatic and of such members of his family as are dependent on him for maintenance, but it shall not be necessary to make any order as to the custody of the person of the lunatic.

68. Court of Wards to be authorised in certain cases to take charge of estate of lunatic :-

If the estate of a lunatic so found or any part thereof consists of property which, by the law for the time being in force, subjects the proprietor, if disqualified, to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards, the Court of Wards shall be authorised to take charge of the same.

69. Power to direct Collector to take charge of person and estate of lunatic in certain cases. :-

(1) If the estate of a lunatic so found consists in whole or in part of land or any interest in land, but is not of such a nature that it would subject the proprietor, if disqualified, to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards, the District Court may direct the Collector to take charge of the person and estate of the lunatic: Provided that no such order shall be made without the consent of the Collector previously obtained.

(2) The Collector shall thereupon appoint a manager of the estate, and may appoint a guardian of the person of the lunatic.

70. Control over proceedings of Collector. :-

All proceedings of the Collector in regard to the person or estate of a lunatic under this Chapter shall be subject to the control of the State Government or of such authority as it may appoint in this behalf.

71. Power of District Court to appoint guardian and manager and take security form manager. :-

(1) In all other cases the District Court shall appoint a manager of the estate of the lunatic and may appoint a guardian of his person :

Provided that a District Court may, instead of appointing a manager of the estate of a lunatic, exercise any of the powers conferred on the High Court under section 56 and Section 59 .

(2) Any person who has been appointed by the District Court or Collector to manage the estate of a lunatic shall, if so required, enter into a bond in such form and with such sureties as to the Court or the Collector, as the case may be, may seem fit, engaging duly to account for what he may receive in respect of the property of the lunatic.

72. Restriction on appointment of legal heir of lunatic to be guardian of his person. :-

The legal heir of a lunatic shall not be appointed to be the guardian of the person of such lunatic unless the Court or the Collector, as the case may be, for reasons to be recorded in writing, considers that such an appointment is for the benefit of the lunatic.

73. Remuneration of managers and guardians. :-

A guardian of the person of a lunatic or a manager of his estate appointed under this Chapter shall be paid such allowance, if any, as the Court or the Collector, as the case may be, thinks fit for his care and pains in the execution of his duties.

74. Duties of guardian. :-

(1) The person appointed to be guardian of a lunatic's person shall have the care of his person and maintenance.

(2) When a distinct guardian is appointed, the manager shall pay to the guardian such allowance as may be fixed by the District Court or the Collector, as the case may be, for the maintenance of the lunatic and such members of his family as are dependent on him for their maintenance.

75. Powers of manager. :-

(1) Every manager of the estate of a lunatic appointed as aforesaid may exercise the same powers in the management of the estate as might have been exercised by the proprietor if not a lunatic, and may collect and pay all just claims, debts and liabilities due to or by the estate of the lunatic:

Provided that no manager so appointed shall without the permission of the Court-

(a) mortgage, charge, or transfer by sale, gift, exchange or otherwise any immoveable property of the lunatic,

(b) lease any such property for a term exceeding five years Such permission may be granted subject to any condition or restriction which the Court thinks fit to impose.

(2) Before granting any such permission, the Court may cause notice of the application for such permission to be served on any relative or friend of the lunatic, and may make or cause to be made such inquiries as to the Court may seem necessary in the interests of the lunatic.

76. Manager to furnish inventory and annual accounts. :-

(1) Every person appointed by the District Court or by the Collector to be manager of the estate of a lunatic shall, within six months from the date of his appointment, deliver in Court or to the Collector, as the case may be, an inventory of the immoveable property belonging to the lunatic and of all such money, or other moveable property, as he may receive on account of the estate, together with a statement of all debts due by or to the same.

(2) Every such manager shall also furnish to the Court or to the Collector annually, within three months of the close of the year of the era current in the district, an account of the property in his charge, exhibiting the sums received and disbursed on account of the estate and the balance remaining in his hands.

77. Proceeding if accuracy of inventory or accounts is impugned. :-

If any relative of the lunatic, or the Collector by petition to the Court, impugns the accuracy of the said inventory and statement, or of any annual account, the Court may summon the manager and inquire summarily into the matter and make such order thereon as it thinks fit; or the Court, at its discretion, may refer any such petition to any subordinate Court or to the Collector if the manager was appointed by the Collector.

78. Payment into public treasury and investment of proceeds of estate. :-

All sums received by a manager on account of any estate in excess of what may be required for the current expenses of the lunatic or of the estate, shall be paid into the public treasury on account of the estate and shall be invested from time to time in any of the securities specified in S.20 of the Indian Trusts Act, 1882, unless the Court or the Collector, as the case may be, for reasons to be recorded in writing, directs that such sums be in the interest of the lunatic otherwise invested or applied.

79. Relative may sue for an account. :-

Any relative of a lunatic may with the leave of the District Court sue for an account from any manager appointed under this Chapter, or from any such person after his removal from office or trust, or from his legal representative in case of his death, in respect of any estate then or formerly under his care or management or of any sums of money or other property received by him on account of such estate.

80. Removal of managers and guardians. :-

(1) The District Court, for any sufficient cause, may remove any manager appointed by it not being the Curator, and may appoint such Curator or any other fit person in his place, and may compel the person so removed to make over the property in his hands to his successor, and to account to such successor for all money received or disbursed by him.

(2) The Court may also for any sufficient cause, remove any guardian of the person of the lunatic appointed by it. and may appoint any other fit person in his place.

(3) The Collector, for any sufficient cause, may remove any manager of the estate of a lunatic or guardian of the person of a lunatic appointed by him, and may appoint any other fit person in place of such manager or guardian ; and the District Court, on the application of the Collector, may compel any manager removed under this section to make over the property and all accounts in his hands to his successor and to account to such successor for all money received or disbursed by him.

81. Penalty on manager for refusing to deliver accounts or property. :-

The District Court may impose a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees on any manager of the estate of a lunatic who willfully neglects or refuses to deliver his accounts or any property in his hands within the time fixed by the Court, and may realize such fine as if it were a sum due under a decree of the Court, and may also commit the recusant to the civil jail until he delivers such accounts or property.

82. Proceedings in lunacy to cease or to be set aside if Court finds that the unsoundness of mind has ceased. :-

(1) When any person has been found under this Chapter to be of unsound mind, and it is subsequently shown to the District Court that there is reason to believe that such unsoundness of mind has ceased, such Court may make an order for inquiring whether such person is still of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself and his affairs.

(2) The inquiry shall, as far as may be, be conducted in the same manner as is prescribed in this Chapter for an inquisition into the unsoundness of mind of an alleged lunatic, and if it is found that the unsoundness of mind has ceased, the Court shall order all proceedings in the lunacy to cease or to be set aside on such terms and conditions as to the Court may seem fit.

83. Appeals. :-

An appeal shall lie to the High Court from any order made by a District Court, under this Chapter.

PART 4

MISCELLANEOUS

ESTABLISHMENT OF ASYLUMS

84. State Government may establish or license the establishment of asylums :-

The State Government may establish or license the establishment of asylums at such places as it thinks fit <sup>1</sup>[if it is satisfied that provision has been or will be made for the curative treatment therein of persons suffering from mental diseases.] <sup>2</sup>

1. Inserted by Act 6 of 1922, Section 3

2. Inserted by Section 4, ibid.

84A. Power to cancel license if provision for curative treatment is insufficient. :-
