[9th February, 1976]

STATEMENTS OF OBJECTS AND REASONS The Regional Rural Banks Ordinance, 1975 (13 of 1975) was promulgated by the President to provide for the incorporation, regulation and winding up of Regional Rural Banks with a view to developing the rural economy by providing, for the purpose of development of agriculture, trade, commerce, industry and other productive activities in the rural areas, credit and other facilities particularly to the small and marginal farmers, agricultural labourers, artisans and small entrepreneurs and for matters connected therewith and incidental thereto. 2. The Regional Rural Banks are intended to combine the local knowledge and familiarity of rural problems which the co-operatives possess and the degree of business organisation, ability to mobilise deposits, access to central money markets and a modernised outlook which the commercial banks have. This basic approach of the Regional Banks will distinguish it from the co-operatives on the one hand and the existing commercial banks on the other. 3. To ensure that in their functioning, the Regional Rural Banks observe the utmost economy, it has been statutorily provided that, in determining the remuneration of the officers and employees appointed by the Regional Rural Banks, the Central Government shall have due regard to the salary structure of the employees of comparable level and status of the State Government and the local authorities. 4. The Bill seeks to replace the Ordinance-S.O.R.- Gaz.of Ind., 15-1-1976, Pt. II, S. 2.Ext.. p. 358. Amending Act 73 of 1976.- it is proposed to bring about a measure of uniformity in the procedure for appointment, fixation of the terms and conditions of service including removal from or termination of, service of the chairman, vice-chairman, and managing directors of the State Bank of India, chairman of the Regional Rural Banks, chairman of the Industrial Finance Corporation of India and chairman and managing director of the Industrial Development Bank of India in the relevant enactments regulating the said institutions. These Executives will also have the option to relinquish office by giving the Central Government a notice of three months. It is proposed to make the amendments applicable to the existing incumbents of these offices also. 2. Opportunity has also been taken to streamline some other provisions of these Statutes.-S.O.R.--Gaz. of Ind., 24-5-1976. Pt. II, S. 2, Ext..p. 939. Act 1 of 1988.-The Regional Rural Banks Act, 1976 provides for the incorporation, regulation and winding up of Regional Rural Banks (RRBs) with a view to developing the rural economy by providing, for the purpose of development of agriculture, trade, commerce, industry and other productive activities in the rural areas, credit and other facilities, particularly to the small and marginal farmers, agricultural labourers, artisans and small entrepreneurs. 2. In the light of the experience gained in the administration of the RRBs during the last over ten years, a need was felt to amend the Act to improve the functioning of the RRBs and for strengthening their organisational structure and improving their overall capabilities. 3. The Bill, inter alia, seeks to make the following amendments as indicated below : (a) the authorised capital of the RRBs is being enhanced from Rs. 1 crore to Rs. 5 crores; (b) the issued capital of a RRB is also being enhanced which shall in the first instance, be such, as may be determined by the Central Government not being less than Rs. 25 lakhs and not more than Rs. 1 crore; (c) the composition of the Board of Directors of a

RRB is being restructured. Under the amended provision, the Central Government will nominate only two non-official Directors. The remaining Directors will be the officers of the Reserve Bank of India, the National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development, the Sponsor Bank and the State Government concerned, nominated by them. The Chairman of the Regional Rural Bank shall be appointed by the Sponsor Bank in consultation with the National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development where he is not an officer of the Sponsor Bank and with the prior approval of the Central Government where he is not an officer of the Sponsor Bank, instead of his being appointed by the Central Government. (d) provision for the amalgamation of Regional Rural Banks in certain circumstances is being provided; (e) the Sponsor Banks are being empowered to undertake periodical inspection, internal auditing and monitoring the progress of their sponsored RRBs. 4. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects. -Gaz. of Ind., 28-8-87, Pt. II, S. 2. Ext., p. 7 (No. 43). Amending Act 66 of 1988.- The Banking Laws were last amended through the Banking Laws (Amendment) Act, 1985 (81 of 1985), the various provisions of which were brought into force on different dates in 1985 and 1986. Since then, in the course of administering various laws relating to banks and public financial institutions a need has arisen for some further amendments to Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934, Banking Regulation Act, 1949, State Bank of India Act, 1955, State Bank of India (Subsidiary Banks) Act, 1959, Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation Act, 1961, Industrial Development Bank of India Act, 1964, Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1970, the Regional Rural Banks Act, 1976, Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1980, Export-Import Bank of India Act, 1981, National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development Act, 1981 and Industrial Reconstruction Bank of India Act, 1984, to achieve the following objectives :- (i) to enable the Government to increase the paid-up capital of the nationalised banks so as to improve the banks debt equity ratio and profitability; (ii) to invest the Reserve Bank of India with powers to have special audits of banks carried out whenever considered necessary in the public interest or in the interests of the banking company or its depositors either by the banks' auditor or any other auditor specially appointed for the purpose; (iii) to provide uniform tenure to all non-official directors and employee directors on the Boards of the State Bank of India and its subsidiary banks and certain financial institutions and to limit their continuous membership of the Board of Directors of a Bank or institution in keeping with the principle enunciated by the Estimates Committee; (iv) to empower the Central Government to change the accounting year of any bank or financial institution by notification in the Official Gazette which would enable the Central Government to change the present accounting year of banks and financial institutions to coincide with the financial year (April-March) which is envisaged ' as the previous year for income-tax purposes; (v) to provide transfer of whole or part of the undertaking of one corresponding new bank to another corresponding new bank; (vi) to obviate avoidable delays by omitting the requirement of prior consultation with the State Bank of India or the Reserve Bank of India, as the case may be, in the matter of nomination or appointment of officials of the Central Government on the Boards of Directors of Subsidiary Banks of the State Bank of India and the National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development as obtaining in other analogous statutes: (vii) to provide for making of the regulations by the Board of Directors of the banks and financial institutions by notification in the Official Gazette; (viii) to enable the Reserve Bank of India to make regulations to govern Clearing Houses which have as members, besides scheduled banks, other banks and post office savings banks; (ix) to amend Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 to omit the ceiling on the quantum of loans and advances which could be made by the Reserve Bank of India to the Industrial Finance Corporation of India; (x) to revise the rate of interest from the present level of six per cent to eighteen per cent per annum payable on a negotiable instrument from the due date in case no rate of interest is specified, or payable to an indorser from the date of payment on a negotiable instrument on its dishonour with a view to discouraging the withholding of payment on negotiable instruments on due dates (xi) to enhance the acceptability of cheques in settlement of liabilities by making the drawer liable for penalties in case of bouncing of cheques due to insufficiency of funds in the accounts or for the reason that it exceeds the arrangements made by the drawer, with adequate safeguards to prevent harassment of honest drawers. (xii) to empower the Chairman, National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development (NABARD) to exercise the powers and discharge the functions also of the Managing Director, NABARD, during the period of any casual vacancy in the office of Managing Director, NABARD, for smooth functioning of NABARD. 2. The Notes on clause explain in detail the various provisions contained in the Bill. -Gaz. 1. 5-12-1988, Pt. II, S. 2, Ext., p. 16 (No. 49).

(1) Every Regional Rural Bank shall cause its books to be closed and balanced as on the 31st day of December <sup>1</sup> [or such other date in each year as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify] and shall appoint with the approval of the Central Government auditors for the audit of its accounts. [Provided that with a view to facilitating the transition from one period of accounting to another period of accounting under this sub-section, the Central Government may, to order published in the Official Gazette, make such provisions as it considers necessary or expedient for the closing and balancing of, or for other matters relating to, the books in respect of the concerned years.]

(2) Every auditor of a Regional Rural Bank shall be a person who is qualified to act as an auditor of a company under Section 226 of the Companies Act, 1956, and shall receive such remuneration as the Regional Rural Bank may fix with the approval of the Central Government.

(3) Every auditor shall be supplied with a copy of the annual balance-sheet and profit and loss account of the Regional Rural Bank, and a list of all books kept by the Regional Rural Bank, and it shall be the duty of the auditor to examine the balance-sheet and vouchers relating thereto, and, in the performance of his duties, the auditor-

(a) shall have, at all reasonable times, access to the books, accounts and other documents of the Regional Rural Bank;

(b) may, at the expense of the Regional Rural Bank, employ accountants or other persons to assist him in investigating such accounts; and

(c) may, in relation to such accounts, examine the Chairman or any officer or employee of the Regional Rural Bank.

(4) Every auditor of a Regional Rural Bank shall make a report to that bank upon the annual balance-sheet and accounts and in every such report shall state,-

(a) whether, in his opinion, the balance-sheet is a full and fair balance-sheet containing all necessary particulars and is properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and fair view of the affairs of the Regional Rural Bank, and, in case he had called for any explanation or information, whether it has been given and whether it is satisfactory;

(b) whether or not, the transactions of the Regional Rural Bank, which have come to his notice, have been within the powers of that bank;

(c) whether or not, the returns received from the offices and branches of the Regional Rural Bank have been found adequate for the purpose of his audit;

(d) whether the profit and loss account shows a true balance of profit or loss for the period covered by such accounts; and

(e) any other matter which he considers should be brought to the notice of the Regional Rural Bank.

1. Chap. VA containing sections 23A to 23D inserted by Regional Rural Banks (Amendment) Act (1 of 1988), section 13 (28-9-88).

20. Annual report to be furnished to the share-holders :-

[(1)] Every Regional Rural Bank shall, within <sup>1</sup> [three months from the date of the closure of its accounting year, or such further period, not exceeding three months, as may be permitted by the Reserve Bank], send to each of its share-holders a report as to its working and activities during the accounting year immediately preceding together with a copy of its balance-sheet, profit and loss account and the auditor's report in relation to the accounts of the said accounting year.

[(2) The Central Government shall cause every auditors report and report on the working and activities of each Regional Rural Bank to be laid, as soon as may be after they are received, before each House of Parliament.]

1. Chap. VA containing sections 23A to 23D inserted by Regional Rural Banks (Amendment) Act (1 of 1988), section 13 (28-9-88).

21. Disposal of profits :-

After making provisions for bad and doubtful debts, depreciation in assets, contributions to staff and superannuation funds and all other matters for which provision is, under law, necessary or which are usually provided for by banking companies, a Regional Rural Bank may, out of its net profits, declare a dividend.

22. Regional Rural Bank to be deemed to be a co-operative society for purpose of the Income-tax Act, 1961 :-

For the purposes of the Income tax Act, 1961 , or any other enactment for the time being in force relating to any tax on income profit or gains, a Regional Rural Bank shall be deemed to be a co-operative society.

23. Interest tax not payable :-

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Interest-tax Act, 1974, no Regional Rural Bank shall be liable to pay any tax under that Act.

23A. Amalgamation of Regional Rural Banks :-

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, if the Central Government, after consultation with the National Bank, the concerned State Government and the Sponsor Bank, is of the opinion that it is necessary in the public interest or in the interest of the development of the area served by any Regional Rural Bank or in the interest of the Regional Rural Banks themselves, that two or more Regional Rural Banks should be amalgamated, that Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, provide for the amalgamation of such Regional Rural Banks (hereinafter in this Chapter referred to as the transferor Regional Rural Banks) into a single Regional Rural Bank (hereafter in this Chapter referred to as the transferee Regional Rural Bank) with such constitution, property, powers, rights, interests, authorities and privileges; and with such liabilities, duties and obligations, as may be specified in the notification.

(2) Every notification issued under sub-section (1) shall indicate the date with effect from which the amalgamation shall become effective.

(3) Every notification issued under sub-section (1) may also provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:-

(a) the continuance in service of all the employees of the transferor Regional Rural Banks (excepting such of them as not being workmen within the meaning of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 are specifically mentioned in the notification) in the transferee Regional Rural Bank at the same remuneration and on the same terms and conditions of service, which they were getting or, as the case may be, by which they were being governed, immediately before the date on which the amalgamation takes effect;

(b) notwithstanding anything contained in clause (a), where any of the employees of the transferor Regional Rural Banks, not being workmen within the meaning of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 are specifically mentioned in the notification, or where any employee of the transferor Regional Rural Banks has by notice in writing given to the transferee Regional Rural Bank at any time before the expiry of a period of three months next following the date on which the amalgamation takes effect, intimated his intention of not becoming an employee of the transferee Regional

Rural Bank the payment to such employee of compensation, if any, to which he is entitled under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 , and such gratuity, provident fund and other retirement benefits ordinarily admissible to him under the rules or authorisations of the concerned transferor Regional Rural Banks immediately before that date;

(c) the other terms and conditions for the amalgamation of Regional Rural Banks; and

(d) the continuance by or against the transferee Regional Rural Bank of any pending legal proceeding by or against any transferor Regional Rural Banks and such consequential, incidental and supplemental provisions, as may, in the opinion of the Central Government, be necessary to give effect to the amalgamation.

(4) Every notification issued under sub-section (1) shall, as soon as may be after it has been made, be laid before each House of Parliament.

23B. Notification under section 23A to be sufficient notice to concerned parties :-

(1) A notification issued under sub-section (1) of section 23A , shall constitute sufficient notice of the provisions thereof to all the parties concerned and shall be binding on the transferor Regional Rural Banks and the transferee Regional Rural Bank and to the depositors, creditors, employees and all other persons having dealings with such banks.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 or the Registration Act, 1908 , any notification issued under sub-section (1) of section 23A shall be sufficient conveyance, in accordance with the provisions of the notification, of the business, properties, assets and liabilities, rights, interests, powers, privileges, benefits and obligations of whatever nature of the transferor Regional Rural Banks to the transferee Regional Rural Banks.

(3) On and from the date on which the amalgamation takes effect under section 23A . any reference to the transferor Regional Rural Banks in any agreement, conveyance, assurance, power of attorney or any other document of whatsoever nature, shall be deemed to be a reference to the transferee Regional Rural Bank and the rights and obligations of the transferor Regional Rural Banks shall be deemed to be the rights and obligations of the transferee Regional Rural Bank to the extent specified in the said amalgamation.

23C. Cessation of business of transferor Regional Rural Banks :-

On and from the date on which the amalgamation takes effect under section 23A, the transferor Regional Rural Banks shall cease to carry on business, including that of making of any payment to any depositors or discharge any liability or obligation to the creditors except to the extent as may be necessary for the implementation of the provisions of the said amalgamation.

23D. Liquidation of Regional Rural Banks :-

Where a notification is issued for the amalgamation of Regional Rural Banks under sub-section (1) of section 23A, the Central Government may, by a further notification in the Official Gazette, direct that on such date, as may be specified therein, the transferor Regional Rural Banks, which by reason of amalgamation will cease to function, shall stand dissolved and such direction shall take effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in section 26.]

CHAPTER 6

MISCELLANEOUS

24. Power of Central Government to give directions :-

(1) A Regional Rural Bank shall, in the discharge of its functions, be guided by such directions in regard to matters of policy involving public interest as the Central Government may, after consultation with the Reserve Bank, give.

(2) If any question arises as to whether any such direction relates to a matter of policy involving public interest, the decision of the Central Government thereon shall be final.

24A. Inspection, audit and scrutiny by the Sponsor Bank :-

Notwithstanding anything contained in section 19 and without prejudice to the provisions of S.35 of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949, the Sponsor Bank shall, from time to time, monitor the progress of the Regional Rural Banks sponsored by it and cause inspection, internal audit and scrutiny to be made by one or more of its officers and suggest corrective measures to be taken by such Regional Rural Bank.]

25. Obligations as to fidelity and secrecy :-

(1) A Regional Rural Bank shall observe except as otherwise required by law, the practices and usages customary among bankers and, in particular, it shall not divulge any information relating to, or to the affairs of, its constituents except in circumstances in which it is, in accordance with the law or practice and usage customary among bankers, necessary or appropriate for the Regional Rural Bank to divulge.

(2) Every director, member of a committee or auditor, officer or other employee of a Regional Rural Bank shall, before entering upon his duties, make a declaration of fidelity and secrecy in the form set out in the Schedule to this Act.

28 "(3) Nothing contained in this section shall apply to the credit information disclosed under the Credit Information Companies (Regulation) Act, 2005.".
