Assam Secondary Education Act, 1961

[04 December 1961]

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS Assam Act No. XXV of 1961 As recommended by the Secondary Education Commission (October, 1952-June, 1953) and with a view to regulating, supervising and developing Secondary Education, it has become necessary to establish Secondary Education in the State. As Higher Secondary Schools are already functioning and the first batch of the candidates will be examined in 1962, it is found necessary to introduce this Bill in the present session of the Assam Legislative Assembly. [Published in the Assam Gazette, Part V, dated 12.4.1961.] Report of the Select Committee on the Assam Secondary Education Bill, 1961. [Published in the Assam Gazette, Part V, dated 12.9.1961.] Assam Act No. XVI of 1966 Due to establishment of the Dibrugarh University within Assam, it has become necessary to provide for representation of both the Universities in the Board of Secondary Education. The appointment of the Chairman of the Board should also be left open to the Government as in the case of Secretary. Since the High Madrasahs are for all intents and purposes Secondary Schools, the State Madrasah Board adopted a resolution recommending to Government the transfer of the academic control of the Madrasahs to the Board. The proposed amendment also will make it possible for the Board to recognise High Madrasahs and to prescribe courses of study and to hold examination. Hence the Bill. [Published in the Assam Gazette, Part V, dated 23.3.1966.] Assam Act No. XVIII of 1972 The Legislative Assembly adopted a resolution on 26th March, 1971, to convert the Board of Text Book Production and Research into a public Sector Company Under the name and title of the Assam State Text Book Production and publication Corporation registered under the Indian Companies Act, 1956. The Power and function of the said Corporation will be dealt with matters regarding preparation, publication etc. of text books reference books, etc. Therefore, the powers of such preparation, publication of text books, etc. which is now being exercised by the Secondary Education Board under Section 13(viii) of the Assam Secondary Education Act, 1961 will devolve on the said Corporation. In order to achieve the above objective necessary amendment to the aforesaid section of this Act of 1961 is necessary. It is further proposed to make a provision in the Act to enable the Board to prepare and publish text books, etc. if the aforesaid Corporation fails to discharge its functions within a reasonable period. Hence the Bill. [Published in the Assam Gazette, Extraordinary No. 96 dated 11.7.1972.] Assam Act No. XVII of 1973 Under the existing provisions of Section 5 of the Assam Secondary Education Act 1961, the Director of Public Instruction, Assam is the Chairman of the Assam Secondary Education Board. It is now considered expedient to appoint a whole time Chairman of the Board in place of Director of Public Instruction incorporating a provision under the authority of the law, for smooth and efficient administration of the Board. To achieve the above objective, it is proposed to amend Section 5 of the Assam Secondary Education Act. It is also proposed to provide for representation of the Assam Aided High Schools Teachers Association, Assam High Schools Teachers Association and the Assam M.E. Schools Teachers' Association in the Assam Secondary Education Board to enable participation of teachers in the academic life of the Board. Hence the Bill. [Published in the Assam Gazette, Part V, dated 27-6-1973.] An Act to provide for the establishment of a Board of Secondary Education to regulate, supervise and develop Secondary Education in the State of Assam. Whereas it is expedient to establish a Board of Secondary Education to regulate, supervise and develop the system of Secondary Education in the State of Assam; It is hereby enacted in the Twelfth year of the Republic of India as follows- 1.
