SCHEDULE 1 :- RECRUITING ROLL

CENTRAL RESERVE POLICE FORCE ACT, 1949

66 of 1949

[28th December, 1949]

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS "The Crown Representative's Police Force" which was raised by the late Crown Representative as a reserve force to aid Indian States in the maintenance of law and order in times of emergency, has been retained as the Central Reserve Police Force even after the lapse of paramountcy. 2. The Crown Representative's Police Force Law, 1939, which was made under Foreign (Jurisdiction) Order, 1937. to provide for the constitution and regulation of the Force, automatically ceased to have effect from the 15th August, 1947. but no enactment has been made for the regulation and control of this Force by the Government of India after the 15th August, 1947. The objects of the proposed Bill are to replace the old Crown Representative's Police Force Law, 1939, and thus provide for the organisation, control and regulation of the Central Reserve Police Force, by the Central Government. For the purposes of this Bill, this Force falls within the category of "any other armed forces raised or maintained by the Dominion" mentioned in Paragraph I of List I of the Seventh Schedule to Government of India Act, 1935, as adapted." -Gaz. of Ind., 17-12-1949. Pt. V, p. 473.

1. Short title and extent :-

(1) This Act may be called the Central Reserve Police Force Act, 1949.

2. Definitions :-

In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,-

(a) "active duty" means the duty to restore and preserve order in any local area in the event of any disturbance therein;

(b) "close arrest" means confinement within the force or a detachment of the Force or and post quarter-guard building or tent under charge of a guard;

(c) "the Force" means the Central Reserve Police Force;

(e) "open arrest" means confinement within the precincts of any barracks, lines or camp for the time being occupied by any part of the Force;

(f) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

(g) "subordinate officer" means a member of the Force of the rank of subedar-major, subedar, jemadar or sub-inspector;

3. Constitution of the Force :-

(1) There shall continue to be an armed force maintained by the Central Government and called the Central Reserve Police Force.

(2) The Force shall be constituted in such manner, and the members of the Force shall receive such pay, pension and other remuneration, as may be prescribed.

4. Appointment and powers of superior officers :-

(1) The Central Government may appoint to the Force a Commandant and such other persons as it thinks fit to be assistant Commandants and company officers.

(2) The Commandant and every other officer so appointed shall have, and may exercise, such powers and authority as may be provided by or under this Act.

5. Enrolment :-

Before a person is appointed to be a member of the Force, the statement contained in the recruiting roll set out in the Schedule shall be read out and, if necessary, explained to him in the presence of an officer appointed under sub-section (1) of section 4, and shall be signed by such person in acknowledgment of its having been so read out to him: Provided that any person who has for a period of six months served with the Force, shall, on appointment to the Force thereafter be deemed to be a member of the Force notwithstanding that the provisions of this section have not been complied with in his case.

6. Resignation and withdrawal from the Force :-

No member of the Force shall be at liberty to-

(a) resign his appointment during the term of his engagement, except before the expiration of the first three months of his service; or

(b) withdraw himself from all or any of the duties of his appointment, without the previous permission in writing of the Commandant or assistant commandant or any other officer authorised by the Commandant to grant such permission.

7. General duties of members of the Force :-

(1) It shall be the duty of every member of the Force promptly to obey and to execute all orders and warrants lawfully issued to him by any competent authority, to detect and bring offenders to justice and to apprehend all persons whom he is legally authorised to apprehend and for whose apprehension sufficient grounds exist.

(2) Every member of the Force shall be liable to serve without and beyond, as well as within, the territory of India.

8. Superintendence, control and administration of the Force

(1) The superintendence of, and control over, the Force shall vest in the Central Government; and the Force shall be administered by the Central Government in accordance with the provisions of this Act and of any rules made thereunder through such officers as the Central Government may from time to time appoint in this behalf.

(2) The Headquarters of the Force shall be at Neemuch or at such other place as may from time to time be specified by the Central Government.

(3) While on active duty outside its headquarters, the Force shall be subject to the general control and direction of such authority or officer as may be prescribed or as may be specially appointed by the Central Government in this behalf.

9. More heinous offences :-

disposes of his arms, clothes, tools, equipments, ammunition or accoutrements, or any such articles entrusted to him or belonging to any other person; or

(i) malingers or feigns or produces disease or infirmity in himself, or intentionally delays his cure, or aggravates his disease or infirmity; or

(j) with intent to render himself or any other person unfit for service, voluntarily causes hurt to himself or any other person; or

(k) does not, when called upon by his superior officer so to do or upon ceasing to be a member of the Force forthwith deliver up, or duly account for, all or any arms, ammunition, stores, accoutrements or other property issued or supplied to him or in his custody or possession as such member; or

(l) knowingly furnishes a false return or report of the number or state of any men under his command or charge or of any money, arms, ammunition, clothing, equipments, stores or other property in his charge, whether belonging to such men or to the Government or to any member of, or any person attached to the Force, or who, through design or culpable neglect, omits or refuses to make or send any return or report of the matters aforesaid; or

(m) absents himself without leave, or without sufficient cause overstays leave granted to him; or

(n) is guilty of any act or omission which, though not specified in this Act, is prejudicial to good order and discipline; or

(o) contravenes any provision of this Act for which no punishment is expressly provided; or who, while not on active duty,-

11. Minor punishments :-

(2) Any punishment specified in clause (c) or clause (d) of subsection (1) may be awarded by any gazetted officer when in command of any detachment of the Force away from headquarters, provided he is specially authorised in this behalf by the Commandant.

(4) A jamadar or sub-inspector who is temporarily in command of a detachment or an outpost may, in like manner and for the commission of any like offence, award to any member of the Force for the time being subject to his authority any of the punishments specified in clause (b) of sub-section (3) for not more than fifteen days,

12. Place of imprisonment and liability to dismissal on imprisonment :-

(1) Every person sentenced under this Act to imprisonment may be dismissed from the Force, and shall further be liable to forfeiture of pay, allowance and any other moneys due to him. as well as of any medals and decorations received by him.

(2) Every such person shall, if he is so dismissed, be imprisoned in the prescribed prison, but if he is not also dismissed from the Force, he may, if the Court or the Commandant so directs, be confined in the quarter-guard or such other place as the Court or the Commandant may consider suitable.

13. Reductions from pay and allowances :-

The following penal deductions may be made from the pay and allowances of a member of the Force by his company officer, that is to say,-

(b) all pay and allowances for every day whilst he is in custody on a charge for an offence of which he is afterwards convicted;

(c) all pay and allowances for every day on which he is in hospital on account of sickness certified by the medical officer attending on him at the hospital to have been caused by an offence committed by him under this Act;

(e) such sum as may be ordered by the Commandant or assistant commandant in order to make good any expenses caused by the member of the Force, or any loss of, or damage or destruction done by him to, any arms, ammunition, equipment, clothing, instrument or decorations belonging to the Force or to any buildings or property.

14. Collective fines :-

Whenever any weapon, part of a weapon or ammunition, forming part of the equipment of a company or other similar unit of the Force, is lost or stolen, the Commandant may, after making such inquiry as he thinks fit and subject to such rules as may be prescribed, impose a collective fine upon the subordinate officers and men of such unit, or upon so many of them as, in his Judgment, should be held responsible for such loss or theft.

15. Arrest :-

(2) Where any subordinate officer orders an arrest under sub-section (1), he shall forthwith or at the earliest opportunity report the arrest to his company or detachment commander who shall after investigating the case order the release or the continued arrest of the member of the Force arrested.

16. Powers and duties conferrable and imposable on members of the Force :-

(1) The Central Government may, by general or special order, confer or impose upon any member of the Force any of the powers or duties conferred or imposed on a police officer of any class or grade by any law for the time being in force.

17. Protection for acts of members of the Force :-

(1) In any suit or proceeding against any member of the Force for any act done by him in pursuance of a warrant or order of a competent authority, it shall be lawful for him to plead that such act was done by him under the authority of such warrant or order.

(2) Any such plea may be proved by the production of the warrant or order directing the act, and if it is so proved, the member of the Force shall thereupon be discharged from liability in respect of the act so done by him, notwithstanding any defect in the jurisdiction of the authority which issued such warrant or order.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, any legal proceeding (whether civil or criminal) which may lawfully be brought against any member of the Force for anything done or intended to be done under the powers conferred by, or in pursuance of, any provision of this Act or the rules thereunder, shall be commenced within three months after the act complained of was committed and not otherwise, and notice in writing of such proceeding and of the cause thereof shall be given to the defendant or his superior officer at least one month before the commencement of such proceeding.

18. Power to make rules :-

19. Validation of acts done before commencement of Act :-

Any order made, thing done, or action taken by or in relation to a member of the Force, on or after the 15th day of August, 1947, but before the commencement of this Act, shall, for all purposes, be deemed to have been made, done or taken under this Act as if this Act were in force on the day on which such order was made, thing was done or action was taken.

SCHEDULE 1

RECRUITING ROLL

(See Section 5) After you have served in the Force for such period as the Central Government may prescribe, you may, at any time when not on active duty, apply for discharge, through the officer to whom you may be subordinate, to the Commandant, and you will be granted your discharge after two months from the date of your application, unless your discharge would cause the vacancies in the Force to exceed one-tenth of the sanctioned strength in which case you shall be bound to remain until this objection is waived or removed. But when on active duty, you shall have no claim to a discharge, and you shall be bound to remain to do your duty until the necessity for retaining you in the Force ceases when you may make your application in the abovementioned manner: Provided that, if you wish to withdraw from the Force, you may submit your resignation at any time before the expiration of the first three months of your service, but not afterwards until the completion of the period prescribed as aforesaid; the Commandant may either accept your resignation forthwith or at the end of three months from the date of its receipt : Provided, also, that the Commandant may, if he thinks fit, allow you to resign at any time on your giving three months' notice of your wish to do so. Signature of the member of the force in acknowledgment of the above having been read out to him. Space for impression of the member's left thumb to be taken in the presence of the enrolling officer. Signed in my presence after I had ascertained that the candidate understood the purport of what he signed. Commandant or other authorised enrolling officer Place Date
